T AVORUM

Welcome from the Headmaster

I'm delighted that you're interested in this important role at Kimbolton School, and I hope this candidate pack answers some of the many questions you will surely have about life here.

Whether you are at the Prep, at one end of the village and our parkland, or the Senior School, at the other, your experience at Kimbolton will be characterised by the same educational ethos: we value character just as much as academic achievement, and we value kindness most of all. To join our school is to enter a friendly and inclusive environment that provides the space and support for children to grow into themselves. Our site is beautiful and safe, with room enough for all our 1,100 pupils to roam, and we are lucky to call Kimbolton Castle and its stunning grounds home.

The most important part of the school is, of course, its people, and you will be welcomed as an old friend by our warm community of pupils and staff. You will find that staff here are well supported and rewarded for their commitment to our pupils, but that what they value most is the camaraderie of supportive colleagues who do not take themselves too seriously.

Kimboltonians are well rounded and have their feet on the ground. They understand the value of hard work, service, and taking failure in their stride. Yet they know how to have fun and they play just as hard as they work - on the sports pitches, on the stage, or just climbing a tree at break time. Their academic results are excellent, too. Our broad curriculum is guided by a desire to see young adults emerge with many strings to their bows and a clear sense of the difference they want to make in the world. Expert staff, who know the pupils as individuals and place their wellbeing first, nurture and challenge them to find their passions and do their personal best.

Kimbolton is, first and foremost, a happy place where every child is valued. I do hope that you will want to join our team.

Recruitment of Staff

Kimbolton School is committed to recruiting, developing and retaining high calibre teaching and non-teaching staff for our outstanding HMC school. All our staff, regardless of role, play an important part in the provision of our first-class education.

Teaching Staff

We employ teachers who are conscientious, imaginative and committed to educating the whole person. Our continuous professional development scheme provides all academic staff with an opportunity to reflect on their practice and continue to develop their teaching and pastoral skills to the benefit of all pupils. We expect teachers to be fully involved in the extra-curricular life of our school too, encouraging pupils in their wider development through music, sport, drama, art, CCF, clubs, societies and trips. Sometimes these are out-of-hours, at weekends or during school holidays.

Non-teaching Staff

Our non-teaching staff fill a wide variety of roles, both part- and full-time and some of them term-time only. They are very much part of our wider team and contribute to, and benefit from, the happy and positive feel of our school.

The School recognises that an important element in safeguarding our pupils is a robust recruitment process that incorporates measures to deter, reject, or identify people who might abuse children, or who are otherwise unsuited to work with them. In addition, recent government guidance, “Safeguarding Children – Keeping Children Safe in Education Sept 2024, specifically Part 3”, as well as specific guidance from the National Minimum Standards for Boarding Schools, help to form the basis of school policy. For further information about Kimbolton School's commitment to Safer Recruitment, please visit our Policies page to read our Safe Recruitment Policy at www.kimboltonschool.com/about-us/policies

You will find in this Application Pack further details about this exciting opportunity to join our friendly and enthusiastic staff team. Please refer to the Method of Application for details on how to apply. We look forward to hearing from you.

Head of Politics

Required from September 2025

The School

Kimbolton School was founded in 1600 and is situated in 100 acres of grounds in the West Huntingdon town of Kimbolton. The School currently educates over 1000 children aged 4-18 in a coeducational, predominantly day environment, although there are up to 60 boarders. The Senior School is located around Kimbolton Castle while the Preparatory School is housed to the west of the village on the original Grammar School site. The School employs approximately 400 staff and also owns a subsidiary company, Kimbolton School Enterprises, which transacts all non-charitable trading activity.

Further information about the School can be found on the School website at www.kimboltonschool.com.

Commitment to Safeguarding

Kimbolton School is dedicated to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of its boarding and day pupils, regardless of age, ability, race, culture, religion, sexuality or class. Safeguarding is integrated into the School ethos. It is the duty of all members of staff including full-time, part-time and volunteers, both teaching and support, to play an active role in ensuring the safety and promoting the welfare of the children in the School's care. Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility.

The Role

We are looking to appoint an enthusiastic, dynamic and motivated teacher of Politics to lead our successful and vibrant department. We welcome applications from experienced teachers. We will also consider high quality applications from less experienced teachers who may be able to take on the role with support.

The Department

Politics is taught at A-level with exceptionally strong uptake. There are currently three sets at Upper Sixth and two at Lower Sixth, We follow the Edexcel specification.

We host and participate in a number of extra-curricular activities including Politics Society and trips to London. The department has a reputation for excellent pupil work and academic results and the subject is highly regarded by pupils.

The department is well-supported by the School and Governors; there are currently two teachers, and the department has one specialist teaching rooms. Schemes of work are collaboratively planned, and lesson resources shared centrally. Good ICT skills are essential as technology, is used to embrace learning throughout the curriculum.

Duties and Responsibilities

- Follow school policy on quality assurance including lessons observations and marking audits
- Ensure that departmental policies are student focused and support the development of every pupil
- Use data to track, review and evaluate pupil outcomes and inform future decisions
- Provide opportunities for pupil voice
- Provide opportunities to share good practice
- Provide opportunities for pupil enrichment including trips and speakers
- In consultation with the department, write and implement a Departmental Development Plan
- Ensure the effective deployment of staff and resources
- Support school strategy in this area

People

- Uphold the responsibilities of the school's Professional Development and Review process (PDR)
- Support the professional development of colleagues
- Work with other functions of the school as appropriate including Academic Support and the Bursary
- Be responsible for the induction of new colleagues

The Head of Department is also responsible for:

- Compiling a department budget
- Liaising with the Deputy Head Academic over timetabling
- Overseeing departmental resources and rooms, ensuring good quality learning environments
- Supporting pupils in making GCSE, A-level and higher education choices
- Liaising with the Exam Office over internal and external exam arrangements
- Maintaining a Departmental Handbook including relevant policies

No list of responsibilities can really encompass all that is asked of the Head of Department; at the heart of their task is an active enthusiasm for the subject, along with energy and commitment – a commitment to helping Kimbolton pupils achieve success at all levels.

All members of staff are expected to play a full role in the life of the School outside the classroom, which includes a commitment to the extra-curricular sphere both after school and on selected Saturdays.
